Why complete a working practice review for IR35?

A review of the working practices of your engagement could demonstrate to HMRC that you have done your due diligence and considered your own tax affairs.

A working practice review is a questionnaire, taking in to account the working reality of your engagement. We will produce a report with our opinion on your IR35 status, showing which contributing factors are supporting this outcome and the aspects that you, and your client, may wish to consider.

If your end-client is a small business or is based wholly overseas, then you are responsible for your IR35 status, and a working practise review can help give you confidence in a determination.

What can I expect?

- ✔ Specialist team
- ✔ Quick & easy tool
- ✔ Instant, accurate determination
- ✔ Detailed report

What if my determination is borderline?

Your review will be passed to our IR35 specialists so they can perform a manual review of all details and offer guidance, to help you gain complete confidence.
